Your tasks

Do you want to shape the tech talents of tomorrow? Join us at WBS CODING SCHOOL - Europe's leading hybrid coding school and help build awesome bootcamps!

We are looking for a Program Lead UX/UI Design (m/f/d) to join our product management team, who wants to build and maintain our UX/UI Design courses and make a difference for students together with our instructors.

Your mission:

- With the help of our product management group, you build and implement our new curricula for UX/UI Design.
- With the help of our trainer recruiting team, you interview and sign up instructors who can deliver your curricula in high-quality to our students.
- You continuously coach instructors to optimize the learning experience
- You mentor junior instructors in skills development to become lead instructors
- You share feedback and learnings from students as well as instructors with other program leads and thereby constantly refine and update our curricula.

Your strengths

You're looking for a flexible work environment in a young and dynamic team and are excited to help up-and-coming talents get started in the tech industry.

Your skills:

- Minimum 5+ years of experience as a professional UX/UI Designer / Product Manager
- You have very good knowledge of: Design patterns, UX/UI Design best practices and UX strategy & research
- You have strong visual design skills and you are familiar with scalable design systems
- You are proficient with design software (e.g. Figma, Sketch)
- You love to share your knowledge and you have experience in teaching or mentoring students
- You are a self-starter and like to bring projects over the finish line
- You speak fluent English
